ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE HONOUR J / EAGLE AWARD APPLICATION

CRITERIA

- Assigned points for areas of involvement MUST be signed by the appropriate staff/supervisor and confirmed with a signature. If advisor/supervisor is no longer available, then print their name.
- The application form must be returned to STUDENT SERVICES OFFICE by April 30th.
- Points can be earned at any time during your first four years at St. John's College.
- EAGLE AWARD: You must earn at least the minimum number of points in the Academics compulsory category, 1 point for a compulsory Letter of Reference, and at least 10 points in three optional categories or 15 points in two optional categories (see chart below). Additional points may be earned from any/all categories.
- HONOUR J AWARD: You must earn at least the minimum number of points in the Academics compulsory category, 1 point for a compulsory Letter of Reference, and at least 20 points in three optional categories or 25 points in two optional categories (see chart below). Additional points may be earned from any/all categories.
- As a general guideline, each point awarded represents about 10 hours of involvement, as well as level of commitment and overall contribution to the group.
- The points you see in the Points per Year column are maximum numbers.
- During the student's years at St. John's College, he/she must have behaved according to the Code of Expectations as indicated in the school's Code of Human Relations, ie having had no serious or on-going violations of the Code.
- 40 hours of community volunteer hours CANNOT be included. Hours accumulated above the 40 hours required for the OSSD may be applied towards the Honour J and Eagle Awards if they were done at a St. John's College sponsored activity.
